Orange County Timmy Awards Selects Doug Pfiffner of Numecent as a Best Tech Manager Finalist

Tech in Motion names top 40 local leaders in tech, opens voting to the public to help decide winners

Irvine (August 24, 2017) – Tech in Motion Orange County announced Doug Pfiffner of Numecent, Inc. as a finalist for “Best Technology Manager” at its Third Annual Timmy Awards, which recognizes the top workplaces for tech professionals. Pfiffner, Chief Technology Officer at Numecent, an application provisioning, compatibility, migration, and virtualization company, was chosen from a field of more than 275 nominees and joins the ranks of past notable finalists including Jim Plush of CrowdStrike, Mike Selberis of Glidewell Laboratories and Nick Newsom of Ytel.

Numecent is a pioneer and technology leader in the rapid, secure, and friction-free provisioning of native software applications from the cloud or on-premises. Working across a range of sectors, Numecent’s ground-breaking Cloudpaging technology offers a new paradigm for application delivery. Pfiffner understands the technical nature of the cloud computing industry and provides precise scope and boundaries of the Cloudpaging products while letting employees be creative in how they meet them.

“The Timmy Awards aim to celebrate the companies and managers that make that technological innovation possible,” says Mandy Walker, Director of Marketing at Tech in Motion and Motion Recruitment Partners. “Since the Timmy Awards were created in 2015, over 400 finalists have been celebrated for creating work environments that enable growth in the technology of various industries.”

The local community can vote online through September 8 to help choose who represents the best of Orange County tech. The winners will be chosen through a panel of expert judges and community votes. A complete list of 2017 Orange County finalists for the Timmys can be found here for all four award categories, highlighting tech work culture, workplace diversity and management as well as startups.

Award winners will be announced live at Orange County Timmy Awards on September 21 at UCI Applied Innovation in Irvine, where members of the Orange County tech community can attend for free and meet the finalists. Previous winners have included innovators such as LearnVest, Venmo, Trip Advisor and many more.
